

1. The student will be able to identify the components of a mixture.

2. The student will be able to describe the properties of a mixture.

3. The student will be able to explain the process of mixing.

4. The student will be able to identify the components of a mixture.

6. The student will be able to identify the components of a mixture.

7. The student will be able to describe the properties of a mixture.

